

Pipe Electrofusion

This course is suitable for anyone working on either the gas or water networks and teaches candidates various techniques of electro fusion welding of pipe joints. The course takes place in a simulated below ground environment where candidates weld in an open trench as if in the highway. The course covers:

- Welding safety
- Use of automatic welding machines
- Preparation of joints
- Test and inspection
- Manufacture of pipe arrangements

1 Day Course